ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I am indebted to both Minister Mr. Mehar Mohammad Aslam Bharwana and Secretary Cooperatives, Punjab Mr. Mansoor Qadir for trusting my initiative and extending full support. I am also grateful to Mr. Farrukh Awan, CR, Housing, Punjab for his supportive role and feedback. Punjab Cooperative Union (PCU) and its Secretary Mr. Arshad Jillani deserve appreciation for owning and printing this valuable document. I am also grateful for the cooperation of Mr. Jameel Ghatwala (Chief Auditor), Ch. Muhammad Ayub Deputy Registrar, Gujranwala, Hafiz Munib-ur-Rehman Deputy Registrar (Judicial) and Mian Zahid Mehmood, Section Officer (Establishment) Cooperatives Department to provide the requisite information which made this book a reality. The efforts of Mr. Muhammad Zaheer, PA to Registrar, Cooperative Societies, Punjab for collecting and typing is also acknowledged.

MESSAGE BY MINISTER

The Cooperatives Department that once was bastion of burgeoning political leadership across the Province gradually lost this forte owing to multiple reasons; ranging from ban on the registration of new societies to the cap on the enhancement of maximum credit limit to the societies. A couple of scandals like scams of the Cooperatives Finance Corporations (1992) to defrauding by the Cooperatives Housing Societies have posited new challenges to this department which the current political regime is committed to tackle.

I as the team leader of the Cooperatives Department with Mr. Mansoor Qadir as the Secretary to the Government and the Registrar Doctor Kiran Khurshid appreciate such initiatives which may help overhaul and reestablish the niche of this century old department. May Allah help us.

MEHAR MOHAMMAD ASLAM BHARWANA

Minister Cooperatives Department
Government of Punjab

FOREWORD

Documenting the important government data is a long lost golden tradition in this part of the world which is deplorable. In absence of record keeping of authentic and updated information at different levels of governance, the reliance is to be placed on scattered information with gaps to be filled in with words of mouth occasionally and casually offered by the veteran officers and officials. This situation is detrimental to the department as well as the interests of public and is exploited by the detractors up to the hilt.

Non availability of relevant information at the nick of time is not only embarrassing but also compromises the very end of justice and robs of informed decision making. Hence, the compilation and printing of "A Collection of Delegation of Powers Notifications of the Cooperatives Department Punjab" is a step to address this problem. Registrar Cooperatives, Doctor Kiran Khurshid has tried to put together the available data on the subject. She has been effectively using the platform of Punjab Cooperatives Union. May this partnership bear more fruit in shape of more books for the promotion of the cooperative movement.

MANSOOR QADIR

Secretary to Government of the Punjab
Cooperatives Department

PREFACE

Significance of documenting the contemporary history has been acknowledged in all ages. In older times, a group of historians and copywriters was entrusted the exclusive task to record and document each command of the ruler. And his every word was a command. That is how the memoirs like Tuzk-e-Jehangiri, Tuzk-e-Babri, Ain-e-Akbari came into being. It was the record of contemporary history which offers valuable insight of that time even today. Even today importance of compiling such information cannot be undermined.

“A collection of delegation of powers notifications of the Cooperatives Department Punjab” is the second work in the series to compile and document the notifications issued by the government from time to time for smooth discharge of duties by the functionaries of the Cooperatives Department. The cooperative movement which started in 19th century in Sub-Continent was soon followed by the introduction of the first Cooperative Credit Societies Act, 1904 which was replaced by the Cooperatives Societies Act in 1912. In 1925, Bombay province adopted a comprehensive Act in its territorial limits. Province of Bengal followed the suit. This legal regime was further reinforced with enunciation of the Cooperatives Societies Rules, 1927.

At the inception of Pakistan, it was already enforced in Sindh being a part of Bombay. However, on 31st December 1965 it was unanimously adopted by the One Unit regime in the West Pakistan after addressing the prevalent discrepancies. On abolition of one unit, it was adopted by the successor provinces. It is the same Cooperatives Societies Act, 1925 and Cooperatives Societies Rules, 1927 which offer the overarching legal super-structure of the Cooperatives Department in Punjab.

The Cooperatives Societies Act, 1925 bestowed all powers upon the office of the Registrar Cooperative Societies as their Regulator. However, as there are more than 30000 registered societies of various kinds with a registered voters of around 1,71000 it is not possible for the Registrar alone to adjudicate and redress their grievances, therefore, foreseeing this scenario the Section 4 of the Act provides for delegation of powers. It states that ‘the provincial government may appoint a person to be Registrar of Cooperative Societies for the Province or any portion of it, and may appoint a person or persons to assist such Registrars, and may, by general or special order, confer on any such person or persons all or any of the powers of a Registrar under this Act.’

Apart from delegating these powers, the Section 59 and 59(B) of the Act further confers the powers of District Collector for recovery of outstanding dues as arrears of land revenue. Section 59 reads ‘... orders under section 50, 50-A, 54 or sub-section (3) of section 54-A and every order passed under section 64-A shall, if not carried out,-

- (a) On a certificate signed by the Registrar or a liquidator, be deemed to be a decree of a Civil Court and shall be executed in the same manner as a decree or such court; or
- (b) [Be executed according to the law for the time being in force for the recovery of the arrears of land revenue;.....signed by the Registrar or by an officer subordinate to the Registrar to whom the said power has been delegated by the Registrar.]

Section 59(3) empowers Registrar and the person empowered by him to be a Civil Court for certain purposes and shall have the powers vested in an executing court under the Civil Procedure Code 1908(Act V of 1908).

Besides the Cooperatives Societies Act, 1925, Section 8 of Land Revenue Act, 1967 also confers powers of the District Collector on Registrar and his subordinate officers. The powers covered in Sections 80 to 112 have been delegated in this manner by the authority. The present collection starts from the notifications issued since 1984 because despite best efforts record prior to it could not be constructed.

These all vested and delegated powers confer huge responsibilities on the officers to discharge their duties in an upright and prompt manner. Non-availability of all such notifications issued at different times may result in errors and omissions on part of the persons exercising it. There are instances of deliberate misuse of delegated authority for want of proper record maintenance at the headquarter. Till the time punitive action is taken, damage is already done.

It is worth mentioning here that till the time the Registrar gets well versed with the pros and cons of delegation his tenure expires. Mostly due to the huge litigation and workload is only wade through the notification in vogue what to speak of its origin, justification and ramifications or value addition. This collection is an attempt to underscore the need and legal foundations of the paraphernalia of plethora of delegated powers. It also indicates which powers are to be exercised after taking fresh approval of the Registrar. If reader allows the undersigned to call Cooperatives Societies Act a skeleton and Rules give it flesh or skin, then the delegation of powers notifications are its veins or arteries without which body of the Cooperatives Department cannot function smoothly.

Section 8

Appointment of Nominees

Section 54 of Cooperative Societies Act, 1925 has empowered the Registrar to decide the disputes regarding business of the Cooperative Societies referred to him by himself or his nominees and it was the practice in past that such nominees were appointed by the Registrar. These nominees are bound under the law to decide the disputes referred to them within 60 days and appeals against their decisions can be filed before the Registrar concerned under Section 56 of Cooperative Societies Act, 1925.

No. US (J&B) 4-14/66

Govt. of the Punjab

Cooperative Department

Dated Lahore the 24th July 1984

From:

The Secretary to

Government of the Punjab,
Cooperatives Department.

1. The Registrar, Cooperative Societies, Punjab, Lahore.
2. All Deputy Registrars, Cooperative Societies Punjab.
3. All Circle Registrars, Cooperative Societies Punjab,
4. All Assistant Registrars, Cooperative Societies Punjab.

SUBJECT: APPOINTMENT OF NOMINEES.

It has come to the notice of the Government persistently that during the course of hearing of appeals / Revision Petitions . Departmental Officers while exercising their delegated powers of the Registrar as laid down under section 54 of the Cooperative Societies Act, 1925 and Rules 32 and 33 of the Cooperative Societies Rules, 1927 appoint such persons as their nominees who have either no back ground of Cooperative Laws or are not capable of adjudicating upon the dispute referred to them. This results in misapplication of relevant law and gives rise to multiplication of litigation.

In view of this, it is directed that the Officers of the Department should immediately review their lists of nominees and ensure that only such persons are notified who are well educated, knowledge about law, particularly the Cooperative Law and have proven integrity.

In certain cases it has also been noticed that where Circle Registrars and Assistant Registrars have no power to appoint a nominee, much time is consumed in the offices of Deputy Registrars in referring the matter to the nominees with the result that a large number of cases defaulting societies of the Punjab Provincial Cooperative Bank and large sized cooperative societies like National Industrial Cooperative Finance Corporation, Mercantile Cooperative Finance Corporation, House Building Cooperative Societies and other such societies remain undecided for a long time.

In view of this, it is directed that all the Deputy Registrars should ensure that cases of such big Cooperative Institution are not delayed in their offices and immediate action is taken in this behalf by observing all legal requirements.
